From L. G. C. S. letter it is seen that Shabaz Khan is recommended for pension on the ground that he is the eldest son of the late Ashraf Khan.

But it is admitted that after the death of Ashraf Khan in 1916, the Pension was transferred to Madar Khan who died in 24.5.38.
The content of Shabaz Khan is that Madar
Khan was drawing the Pension left in his own right but as ^{her} pension is as such the Pension should be his.

Hence the transfer of the Pension to the name of Madar Khan is necessary for proper administration of the claim.

From the Amildar's report
d. 28.3.39, it is gathered that Asha ~~Bee~~ ^{Khan} (wife of Madar Khan) was drawing a pension of as per P.P.O.
No. 35, dated 29-8-1902. The Govt. order d. 6.3.1918 indicates that ~~the~~ ^{on the} lady died on 23.3.1916
and the pension was thereupon transferred to her husband Madar Khan
in 1918. Madar Khan himself died in 1938, & it is his successor that has now to be decided.

The statement referred to by the Hon Secy. Law on previous page (A), refers to a mere allegation made by an interested party to the effect that Asha ~~Bee~~ ^{Khan} pension was transferred to Madar Khan
as ^{her} guardian & not on his own account.

There is nothing in the records to support this statement, but on the other hand the collection put up (S & A. 40. 17-6 & 8) ~~clearly~~ indicates the circumstances of the transfer of pension to Madar Khan and the discussions seem to clearly ~~show~~ ~~that he was not acting as a~~ negative and such inference. It is also seen from his pethona's (Shahja Khatus) own statement in the file that she ~~was~~ ^{also implies} ~~that~~ her ~~mother~~ drew the pension ~~for some time~~ ^{for a year or two} after the death of Asha ^{Khan} ~~Bi~~. The Secretariat file shows that there was no such inter-medary & that Madar Khan derived the pension direct from his wife Asha ^{Khan} ~~Bi~~. ~~no inference~~ ~~no perhaps be attracted to~~

The unsupported statement of an interested party ~~is~~ ^{also} seems to be in contravention to the inferences that can be drawn from records & but the inferences and no other records are available.

A decision has to be reached on the materials available.

The Dy. Commr's report gives the gist of the case. Asha Bi (the original holder) got the pension from her mother. Madar Khan got it as husband of Asha Bi. ~~There are~~ The Dy. Commr says that the descendants of Asha Bi (& Madar Khan) should have preference over the second wife of Madar Khan.

1 is under Sec 53 of Mulla's Muhammadan law, the residue reverts to the sharers in proportion to their shares, & Shekaze Khatri gets nothing.

But the D.C. in para 5 of his letter states that the heirs of Asha Khatri the wife of Madar Khan, should be preferred to the heirs of Madar Khan. His reason is, that before Madar Khan drew his pension his wife Asha Khatri was drawing his pension, & as such it should naturally go to her heirs.

My opinion is that such a course cannot be adopted. Madar Khan as the heir of his wife became entitled to the pension, & now the heirs of Madar Khan alone are entitled to the pension of Shekaze Khatri established by plea which is found in the former marked 'A' ⁱⁿ in 4th Para of the D.C.'s letter ~~marked~~ 'g', then certainly she would be entitled to the pension, but ~~she~~ there is nothing in record to support that plea of Shekaze Khatri & as such, she is not entitled to the pension.

Hence the persons entitled to the pension are Merian Bi & her daughter Karen Bi. As the pension is small, & as there are precedents that ^{are allowed to} her eldest member of the family to draw the pension, & as Karen Bi has not claimed any pension, nor may be possible that Merian Bi should draw the pension. is a sharer & his daughter Karambi by his

SIR,

Subject:— Re. the transfer of the vacant Sarjapur Jahagir pension of late Madar Khan.

1/ With reference to letter No.159/Pen. dated 20th September 1938, from the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, forwarding the petition of Asha Bee, daughter of late Madar Khan, requesting that the Sarjapur Jahagir pension of 0-15-6 might be transferred to the name of her elder son Habeeb Khan, for enquiry and obtaining the orders of Government, I have the honour to state that the necessary enquiry was conducted through the Collector, C & M Station, Bangalore and the result thereof is contained in his letter No. 2651-B-38 dated 23rd September 1938. The enquiry discloses that the late pensioner Madar Khan had two wives viz., Ashia Khathu and Mareem Bi. The first wife drew the pension till her death in 1916 and after her death the pension was transferred to the name of her husband, the late Madar Khan, the previous holder of the pension. Asha Khathu had a daughter Hafiza Bi who died leaving a daughter and a son behind viz., Shahaza Bee and Mahomed Khan whose whereabouts are not known and this Shahaza Bi has got two sons—Mahomed Khan and another minor and she has also claimed the pension drawn by her late grand-father Madar Khan.

2/ The second claimant for this pension is Mareem Bi—the 2nd wife of the late Madar Khan. She is ascertained to have been a convert from Hinduism and she prays for the transfer of the pension enjoyed by her husband to her name. Before she married Madar Khan, Mareem Bi had a daughter by her Hindu husband Appasami.

Maicker known by the Hindu name of Kuppu. He has also become a convert now and is called Ashia Bee (third claimant for the pension) and has got two sons Habib Khan and Rahim Khan. Mareem Bee has got another daughter, Mareem Bee by the late Madar Khan and she is stated to be a widow without issue and to be living with her mother Mareem Bi.

3/ The third claimant is Asha Bee, daughter of Mareem Bee by her Hindu husband as stated above and she claims the pension on behalf of her elder son Habeeb Khan and prays that the same may be transferred to her first son's name.

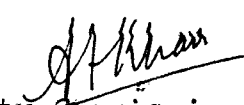

4/ It is seen from the records of enquiry that the pension in question was formerly drawn by Ashia Khathu, the 1st wife of Madar Khan and after her death, it was transferred to the name of Madar Khan. Shahaza Khathu, the grand-daughter of Madar Khan, by his first wife Ashia Khathu, states that the pension was transferred to the name of her grand-father as her guardian because she was a minor then and claims the pension to be transferred to her name.

5/ As the pension is ascertained to have been previously drawn by the late Ashia Khathu, 1st wife of the late pensioner Madar Khan, it should naturally go to her heirs in preference to the heirs of her husband Madar Khan. Neither Mareem Bee (the convert) 2nd wife of Madar Khan nor her children can claim the pension, on the ground that Madar Khan was drawing the same.

6/ In these circumstances, I recommend that the pension of 0-15-6 drawn by the late Madar Khan may be transferred to the name of Shahaza Khathu grand-daughter of Ashia Khathu, as she happens to be the nearest available hakdar to the vacant pension after Madar Khan.

7/ The records of enquiry connected with the case are enclosed herewith for your kind reference.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

ORDER NO.

Dated, Bangalore, the Novr. 1939.

The Deputy Commissioner reports that the enquiry held in the matter disclosed that the late pensioner Madar Khan had two wives, viz., Ashia Khatu and Mareem Bee, that the first wife drew the pension till her death in 1916
and that thereafter the pension was transferred to the name of her husband Madar Khan. After the death of Madar Khan, 3 persons are reported to have come forward claiming the pension, viz., Shahaza Bee, grand daughter (daughter's daughter) of the 1st wife Ashia Khatu, Mareem Bee the 2nd wife of Madar Khan, and Ashia Bee

daughter of Mareem Bee by her first husband ~~and.~~

^{states}
 The Deputy Commissioner ~~is of opinion~~
~~that~~ as the pension was formerly drawn by Ashia Khatu, the 1st wife of Madar Khan,
 before its transfer to the name of Madar-Khan the last holder ~~the pension might~~
~~be continued to her descendents in pre-~~ ~~ference to the heirs of Madar Khan, and~~ ~~recommends that the pension of Rs.0-15-6~~
~~may be transferred to the name of Shahaza~~
~~Khatu grand daughter of Ashia Khatu.~~

But this cannot be a ground for having the pension for Ashia Khatu.

~~As however~~ The last holder of the pension was Madar Khan, ^{and} the inheritance
 has to be traced from him. ~~In the fore~~ ~~going circumstances,~~ ^{accordingly} Government are pleased to direct that the Sarjapur Jahgir pension of Rs.0-15-6 that was being drawn by late Madar Khan be continued in the name of his second wife, Mareem Bee, from the date of death of Madar Khan.

Government Order No. Fl. 4784-5/S.&A. 40-17-8 dated 6th March 1918 sanctioning the continuance of the Sarjapur Jahgir pension of Rs. 0-15-6 drawn by one Asha Bee in the name of her husband Madar Khan from the date of the former's death on 23rd March 1916.

2. Petition dated 13th June 1938, from one Mareem Bi, wife of Mad Khan, stating that her husband died on 21st May 1938 and praying that the Sarjapur Jahgir pension of Rs. 0-15-6 per mensem that was being drawn by her husband may be continued to her.

3. Letter No. 858/1-en of 21st June 1938 from the Comptroller to Government, forwarding a petition received from one Asha Bee praying that the Sarjapur Jahgir pension of Rs. 0-15-6 drawn by her father Madar Khan may be continued in the name of her eldest son Habeeb Khan.

4. Letter No. C. 1296/38-39, dated 19th May 1939 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District submitting a report on the petitions of Mareem Bee and Ashabee.

ORDER NO. 7c 2836-7 SA. 496.37.10

Dated, Bangalore 15th November 1939.

The Deputy Commissioner reports that the enquiry held in the matter disclosed that the late pensioner Madar Khan had two wives, viz., Ashia Khatu and Mareem Bee, that the first wife drew the pension till her death in 1916 and that thereafter the pension was transferred to the name of her husband Madar Khan. After the death of Madar Khan, 3 persons are reported to have come forward claiming the pension, viz., Shahaza Bee, grand daughter (daughter's daughter) of the 1st wife Ashia Khatu, Mareem Bee the second wife of Madar Khan, and Ashia Bee daughter of Mareem Bee by her first husband.

The Deputy Commissioner states that the pension was formerly drawn by Ashia Khatu, the 1st wife of Madar Khan, before its transfer to the name of Madar Khan the last holder. But this cannot be a ground for tracing the heirship ~~from~~ Ashia Khatu.

The last holder of the pension was Madar Khan, and the inheritance has to be traced from him. Government are accordingly pleased to direct that the Sarjapur Jahgir pension of Rs. 0-15-6 that was being drawn by late Madar Khan be continued in the name of his second wife, Mareem Bee, from the date of death of Madar Khan.
